BEFORE YOU READ

Four ways in

Exponential equations put the unknown in the exponent. The structure of the equation decides which method gets it out.

TAKEAWAY

Try matching bases first

Matching bases is the fastest when it works; logarithms always work and are the universal fallback.